

Since 1984,
Spanky's Speakeasy
has been one of Naples'
most unique
dining experiences.

Join the gang for salad fixin's at the 1924 Model T truck
amidst the hundreds of rare antiques.

Years after opening, Spanky's was sued by Spanky McFarland of the Little Rascals television show, which aired during the 30s and 40s. In the end, it turned out to be a good thing. The restaurant settled with him and got the license to use his name and likeness. We are still the only one with those rights!
